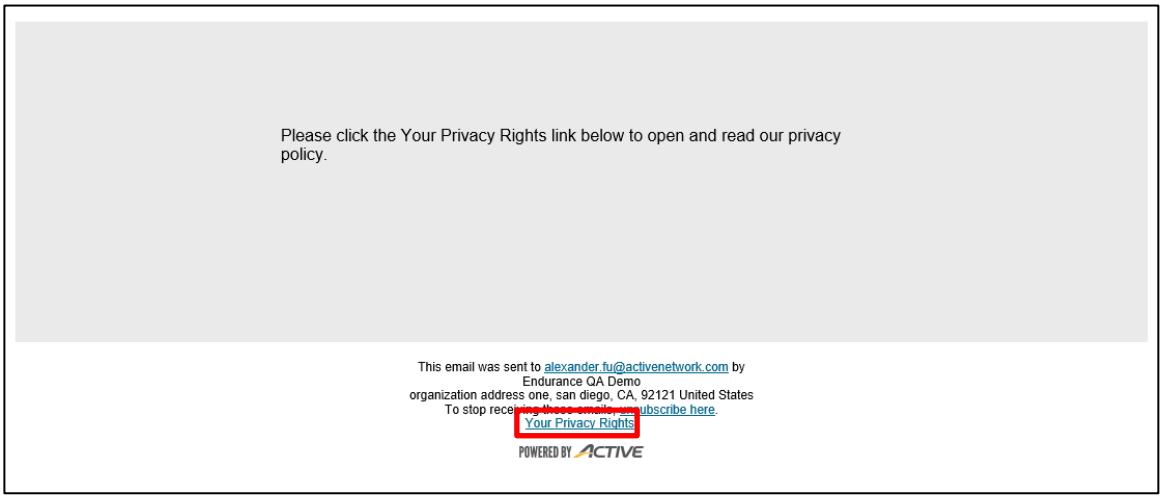
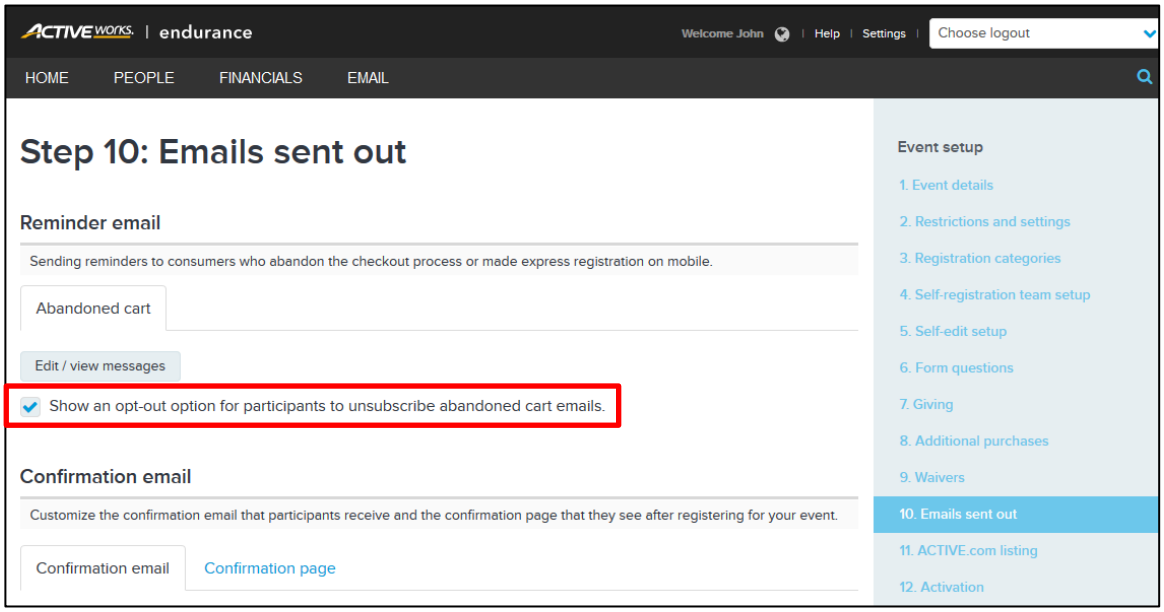
General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) compliance

To comply with the new General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR), your customers can now click the Your Privacy Rights link in the footer of any AW Endurance email to view their updated rights:



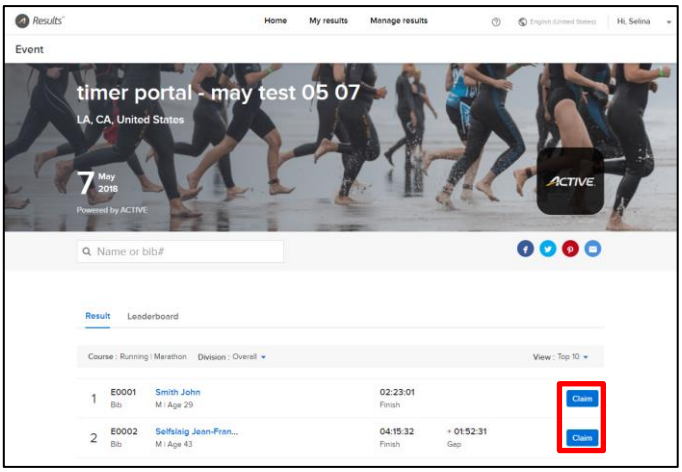
If your organization is based in a European Union country, then email opt-out links are automatically included in abandoned cart emails sent to your customers:

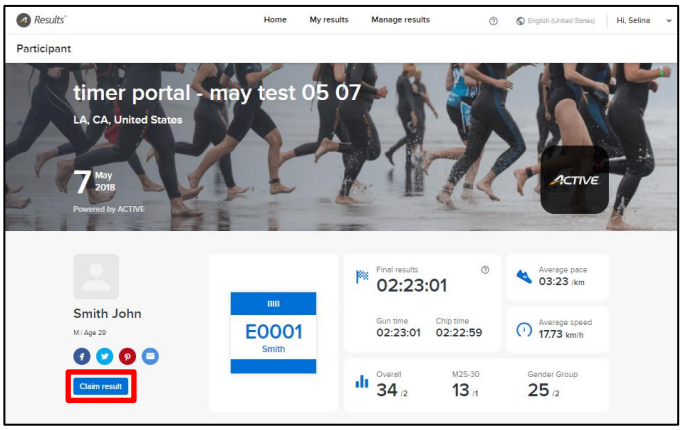


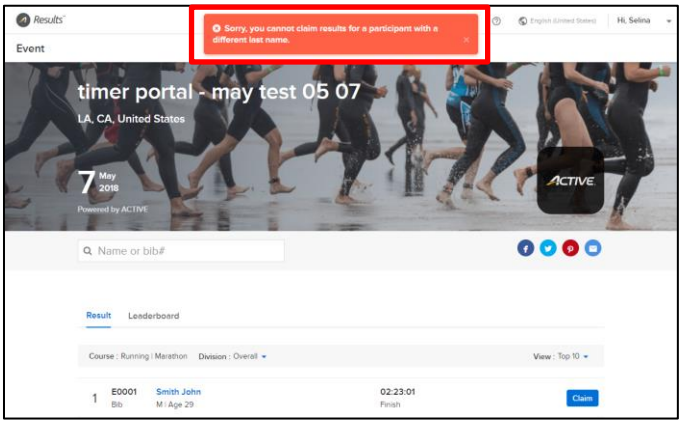
ACTIVE Results: automatic results binding and participant result claim

Two new features on the ACTIVE Results website now save you the time and effort required to bind results to participant registrations.

Your participants can now manually claim their results on ACTIVE Results, by clicking the Claim or Claim result buttons, provided their last name matches:







Once a participant claims a result, it will appear on the participant's My results page.

If you're using a third-party timing system and importing a CSV file of results into ACTIVE Results, then you can now enter participants' AW Endurance registration IDs in the optional Registration ID column.

During results import, if a Registration ID matches an AW Endurance registration ID, then the result is automatically bound to the AW Endurance registration, without need for the participant to manually claim the result on the ACTIVE Results website.

Separate regular and volunteer email permissions

If you're using our Volunteer module (a Premium-tier feature) to manage your volunteers, then you now have finer control over which staff users can view and manage your regular participant emails, volunteer emails, unsubscribed customer emails and email templates. Protect both the privacy of your participants and volunteers, and your sensitive business information.

New permission	Includes access to the EMAIL tab >	Does not include access to the EMAIL tab >	Which roles have this permission
Manage regular emails	Regular email tab Regular templates tab Unsubscribers tab		Owner Coordinator
Volunteer management	Volunteer templates tab		Owner Volunteer coordinator
Volunteer communication	Volunteer email tab	Volunteer templates tab Unsubscribers tab	Owner Coordinator Volunteer coordinator Volunteer captain

These enhanced permissions ensure that your:

- Volunteer coordinators and volunteer captains can email your volunteers, but cannot view or manage emails with regular participants or see unsubscribers.
- Volunteer captains can view and email volunteers, but cannot edit your volunteer email templates.
